REVISÃO

- A stylized, high-contrast illustration in grayscale. It depicts a person from the chest up, wearing a dark suit jacket and a white shirt. The person is seated at a desk, leaning forward with their hands on a laptop keyboard. The laptop is open, and its screen is visible. The background consists of large, dark, angular shapes that suggest an office environment with desks and possibly other people, though they are less distinct. The overall aesthetic is modern and professional.
